1. Say "OOO…" and hold a closed fist in front of your as if you are hiding something really exciting. Look at your fist surprised.

2. Point enthusiastically and clearly to a spot and say "What's this?". Look at the spot you are pointing to, not at your puppy.

3. The moment your puppy touches your finger with their nose, say "Yes."

4. Reward at the spot. Give the treat right where you pointed. Keep your finger there while your puppy eats.
